

LESS TIME RUNNING PAYROLL MEANS MORE TIME HELPING OTHERS

The Greater Dayton Volunteer Lawyers Project is a pro bono legal assistance program dedicated to connecting volunteer attorneys with people in need of legal services for civil cases. With a small team and a mission-driven focus, the organization needed efficient systems to minimize administrative work and maximize time spent serving the community. Summer Hawks helps lead the organization as executive director.

BUSINESS CHALLENGES

Time-consuming onboarding processes

Rising costs from the previous payroll provider

Limited time and resources to spend on administrative work

Executive Director, The Greater Dayton Volunteer Lawyers Project

THE PROBLEM

Inefficient onboarding and rising payroll costs

Before switching to ADP, the organization faced time-intensive onboarding and rising costs with its previous provider. These inefficiencies cost leaders valuable time they could have spent on their core mission: delivering legal services to the community.

THE CHALLENGE

Finding a cost-effective, easy-to-use solution

Summer needed a payroll and HR system that would simplify onboarding, reduce costs and provide strong support for their people, all while remaining straightforward and intuitive for a small team to use.

THE BENEFITS

Simplified onboarding, cost savings and intuitive payroll

With RUN Powered by ADP (RUN), the organization gained:

- Simplified onboarding with easier document collection and management
- A user-friendly interface for efficient payroll processing
- Reliable HR and payroll support when needed

"We wanted a payroll and HR solution that would streamline onboarding and also have great support. ADP provides a great value for the services offered. We chose ADP over Paycor when their prices began to go up."

THE SOLUTION

A user-friendly platform designed for efficiency

RUN provides an intuitive, easy-to-use platform that simplifies payroll and onboarding processes. The improved onboarding experience allows the organization to bring on new employees more efficiently while reducing administrative effort for Summer and the team, helping them stay focused on their cases and their mission.

THE RESULTS

More time to focus on mission-driven work

By switching to ADP, Summer has reduced the time she and the team spend on administrative tasks. Now they get to reallocate that time to focus on what matters most: deliver greater impact to the people they serve in the community.
